St. James' is a community where we come together in Christ to develop spiritually; find opportunities for outreach; receive comfort when in need; and engage in sacred experiences through our liturgy, music, fellowship, and mutual ministry."

From the Rector

Litaniae Sanctorum

Before those who followed in the way of Christ called themselves Christians, they first called themselves Saints. A saint was not someone who in some extraordinary way was set apart from the rest of humanity, or given the Grace to escape the bounds of the earth, or had some special ability to tolerate a difficult spouse—the woman is a saint!—but simply was a person dedicated to the service of God. Paul, for example, begins his letter to the Romans: “To all of God’s beloved in Rome, who are called to be saints: Grace to you and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.”

It strikes me that we have many saints among us in our community of faith. I give thanks to God for these “quiet” saints, for their loving service and I ask God’s blessing upon them:

For Judy Snow, who every week folds our bulletins,
May God enfold you in love and fill you with peace.

For Barbara Swetman, who provides our community with locally roasted, free-trade coffee,
May God enfold you in love and fill you with peace.

For Madeline Ellis, who coordinates each month a folding crew for our newsletters,
May God enfold you in love and fill you with peace.

For our folding crew, for Jim Sinclair, Jean Ashforth, Wendy Weber, Rahel Reger, Judy Snow, Ann Clark,
May God enfold you in love and fill you with peace.

For our financial team, Matt Weber, Jan Wilson, Terry Neil, Blair Jones, Craig Heuss, and Kathy Collett, and for all the members of Finance and Investments,
May God enfold you in love and fill you with peace.

For Nicole Popplewell, who has dedicated herself to sustaining our faith formation for children as we have searched for a new hire,
May God enfold you in love and fill you with peace.

For Sandra Love, who year after year directs and often writes our Christmas pageants,
May God enfold you in love and fill you with peace.

For Kathryn Mowery, who enhances our worship with her gifts in the visual arts,
May God enfold you in love and fill you with peace.

For Patty and Chris Fox, who are creating a new ministry of welcome and hospitality,
May God enfold you in love and fill you with peace.

For Libby Beardsell and Mary Lou Iles, who have skillfully led our parish in its wonderful celebration of 150 years of ministry, and for all who contributed to this joyous time,
May God enfold you in love and fill you with peace.

For Pat Evans, our lovely graphic designer, who publishes our newsletter,
May God enfold you in love and fill you with peace.

For Patricia Jue, who develops and manages our website and chairs our altar guild, and all its members,
May God enfold you in love and fill you with peace.

For Karen Anderson and Mike Baldwin, our wonderful Wardens, and all members of Vestry,
May God enfold you in love and fill you with peace.

For Skip Beardsell and John Crossley, our chairs of property management, and its members,
May God enfold you in love and fill you with peace.

For Kathy Collett, who chairs Communications, and its members,
May God enfold you in love and fill you with peace.

For Patty Fox, chair of our Human Resources Ministry, and its members,
May God enfold you in love and fill you with peace.

For Blair Jones, for her ongoing Stewardship leadership, and all who seek to live lives of stewardship,
May God enfold you in love and fill you with peace.

For Judy Logan, who chairs our Pastoral Care Ministry, and its members,
May God enfold you in love and fill you with peace.

For Ken Iles and Gail Prentice, who oversee our Small Group Ministries, and all who facilitate and participate in these small communities,
May God enfold you in love and fill you with peace.

For our dedicated staff, Richard, Allie, Chris, and Emily,
May God enfold you in love and fill you with peace.

For Wendy Weber, who schedules our worship servers,
May God enfold you in love and fill you with peace.

For Jan Wilson, who directs our children’s choir,
May God enfold you in love and fill you with peace.

For Kate D’angelo, who schedules our acolytes each month, and all our acolytes,
May God enfold you in love and fill you with peace.

For John Pick, who chairs our Outreach ministry, and its members
May God enfold you in love and fill you with peace.

For Sue Pinto, Randy Wilson, Cynthia Williams, and Janeen Spencer, who coordinate and lead our Rite-13 youth group, and all our youth who participate,
May God enfold you in love and fill you with peace.

For our Senior Choir; our Junior Choir; and our Children’s Choir,
May God enfold you in love and fill you with peace.

For our lay Preachers, Karen Anderson, Alistair Campbell and Matt Webber,
May God enfold you in love and fill you with peace.

For The Rev. Ann Stillman, our devoted assistant Priest,
May God enfold you in love and fill you with peace.

For our Lectors,
May God enfold you in love and fill you with peace.

For our Eucharistic Ministers,
May God enfold you in love and fill you with peace.

For our Eucharistic Visitors,
May God enfold you in love and fill you with peace.

For our Ushers,
May God enfold you in love and fill you with peace.

Almighty God, we give you praise and glory for all your saints who have followed in the way of Christ in the power of the Holy Spirit. May we learn from their example and rejoice in your call to us to bring your kingdom to all.

We praise and thank you, Holy Spirit of God, for the men and women you have called, through the centuries and we praise you for calling us to serve you now, for asking us to represent you in this broken world.

Help us to be Christ's united body to heal and reconcile;
help us to share Christ's life with everyone and be filled with the joy of your eternal kingdom, where Jesus is Lord, now and forever. Amen.

Welcome, Emily!

We are very pleased to announce, we have hired a new director for Children's and Youth Ministries, Emily St. Clair-Lee. Emily, a former resident of Clinton, has returned to our community after two years away. Emily has been teaching art at the elementary and middle school levels for the past fifteen years and is an artist herself. Before moving away, Emily owned The Art Room For Kids on Williams Street and is now teaching classes to kids and adults at the KAC. Her creativity and background in the Episcopal Church are wonderful assets as she will soon begin development of a Montessori-based formation program here at St. James. She is excited to work with our children.

Mission of Miracles Collection

The Mission of Miracles is collecting items for the 2013 mission. The Mission of Miracles works with our Companion Diocese of El Salvador in health education and disease treatment by providing medical, dental, vision, mental health, and veterinary services. Each year, members of our Diocese travel to El Salvador to provide support, encouragement and to bring supplies. The following items are greatly needed:

Tylenol or acetaminophen any doses, especially Tylenol arthritis, anti-fungal cream, hydrocortisone cream, arthritis rubs such as ben gay, nasal saline nose spray, and reading glasses of any strength.

Items can be placed in the baskets located in the back of the church, or in the Parish Hall lobby. If possible, give donations by November 15.

Women's Spirituality

Women's Spirituality will meet November 5th at 7:30 at St. Margaret's House on Jordan Road in New Hartford. We are currently reading Cynthia Bourgeault's The Wisdom Jesus and will discuss through part 2 this month. All women are welcome, whether you have read the book or not. We have wonderful discussions each month, regardless of participation with the current reading.

Vestry News

The Vestry has traveled on a new path this year and October continued that journey. We had a wonderful discussion around a recent release by the Pew Forum on Religion and Public Life concerning "Nones" On The Rise: 1 in 5 Adults Have No Religious Affiliation and a report from Gallup Inc. concerning U.S. Confidence in Organized Religion at Low Point. I have attached the URL for each of these reports at the bottom of this section, if you would like to see the complete reports. Our discussion as a Vestry concerned how might we use this information to direct our efforts as a parish to fulfill our Mission Statement. This type of discussion has been the center of most of our meetings this year, and I encourage all parishioners to have a conversation with any Vestry member about this topic, or about our Mission. Help us to help you live out your faith. Our focus this year has been invitation, and we are attempting to become a parish that is welcoming to all folks, of all walks of life, so that we can share the good news of Jesus Christ with all our neighbors.

We will be looking for new Vestry members soon, so please consider participating in this aspect of life here at St. James. If you are interested in serving, please speak with Father Tim, or Karen or Mike.

Annual Altar Guild Meeting Nov. 3

The annual altar guild meeting will be Saturday, November 3, at 3pm in the St. James library. Current members and anyone interested in this service are invited to come. The guild prepares the altar for Eucharist; members typically serve 6-8 weekends per year. We invite anyone interested in joining this long-lived community of service to come to the Nov. meeting, or contact Patricia Jue, if unable to attend. (In these times of equality, we will even let guys in!)

Celebration of Service

On Saturday, November 10th, at the 5:15 service, Bishop Skip Adams will join us to celebrate Rev. Ann Stillman's retirement from active ministry. Following the service, we will have a wine and cheese gathering in Ann's honor. Please join us for the festive occasion marking all of Ann's achievements and her wonderful gift of service to the Church! If you'd like to bring finger food to share, it will be appreciated, but it's not necessary.

Outreach

We had hoped to have information available for everyone for our Christmas Giving plans for this year, but there has been a slight delay in receiving the particulars from both the House of the Good Shepherd and the Country Pantry. Needless to say, we will continue with our tradition of the past two years to provide presents to the children served by these two local agencies. As soon as the information is available, I will get it posted in the weekly bulletins.

Speaking of the Country Pantry, St. James continues to assist with both "goods and services" to help meet the needs of the 160 local families served by the Pantry. With the holiday season approaching, the immediate food needs are for cranberry sauce, stuffing mix, and macaroni and cheese. As well, there is an ongoing need for both paper and plastic grocery bags.

Also, keep in mind that Scouting for Food is the weekends of 11/3 (for the distribution of bags) and 11/10 for the pick up by the Scouts. All of the food collected locally goes to the Country Pantry.

As the holidays approach, don't forget the needs of our other major outreach ministries: Hope House and Haiti, in your prayers and giving!

— John Pick

Treasurer's Report

As always, many thanks for your generous financial contributions to St. James. The third quarter statements will be mailed soon. Please check them over carefully so that we can correct any errors that may have occurred in advance of year end statements for your taxes. As we approach the final budget time and you are considering your stewardship pledge, remember that salaries, utilities, insurance costs, maintenance, and all of our expenses do go up every year. So, if you are financially able, please consider increasing your donation to St. James for 2013. A draft budget will be available soon for you to look over. If you are considering setting up an electronic transfer for your pledge in the future, you will need to contact your financial institution to get the appropriate form that you need to complete. I have copies of the form used for NBT here in Clinton, and I can give you the church's routing number that you will need for the form.

Music

On November 4th, we will celebrate All Saint's Day. The highlight for me is that I get to play Ralph Vaughan Williams' For all the saints, which should be on all of our top ten lists of greatest hymns. As well as this, I'm also planning some special music, which I think will work well to create a sense of spirituality and community, as we partake in the Eucharist. Usually, at this point in the service, we sing two hymns plus, if there's time, a special hymn that the choir sings alone. Instead of this, we will sing Taizé chants, similar to what we sang at the healing service last June. As with that service, there will be no music in the bulletin, but the words of these chants will be printed. Taizé chants employ simple melodies that repeat over and over again with the same words, which are taken from psalms and other scripture. The choir will begin the chant, and the congregation is invited to join in at any point. We will sing each chant for a certain number of times before beginning a new chant. I think this will be a great way to honor the spirit of this special day in our church year.

— Richard Lloyd

Compline at Hamilton College/Advent Vespers

Beginning in November, Father Tim and Richard Lloyd will be holding Compline services at Hamilton College. They will be held in the "Barn" on November 8 and December 13 at 9 pm. Compline is traditionally the last office of the day. It is a contemplative service that emphasizes spiritual peace with word and music. The second of these two services is in place of the second Advent Vespers service (more about those in the next Newsletter).

Rite 13

Rite 13 has been meeting since late September and thus far has participated in an interesting photo scavenger hunt, folded plastic ware for the Hope House and will carve pumpkins on Oct. 28th in preparation for our 2nd Annual Candy and Card for Veterans Halloween Event. Trick or treaters will have the opportunity to play Halloween-themed games and even a whipped cream "pie" toss with some of our brave youth group members as targets. The candy and cards will be taken later in the week to the Veterans Outreach office in Utica. As I'm writing this, I'm saying a prayer that we will be spared a Halloween Hurricane.

In November, Rite 13 can look forward to some combined events with the AYF Youth Group of Hope Alliance Church including an "Underground" Church Event early November and a coffee house near the end of the month.

Rite 13 is open to all pre-teens and teens of any faith and is always looking for young adult and adult talent to share their skills, faith and wisdom with our youth. Please feel free to contact St. James with any questions regarding the youth group.

Worship & Formation

Ecumenical Thanksgiving Service

What better way of giving thanks than doing it together with friends and neighbors. Clinton's annual Ecumenical Thanksgiving service will be held at St. James this year, and we hope to see many of you there. We will gather on Sunday, November 18 at 4pm to lift our voices in song and prayer to offer thanksgiving for all that we have been given throughout this year. Pass on the word!

Lector and Eucharistic Minister Training

Vital to our worship here at St. James are the lay ministries of the lectors and Eucharistic ministers. We invite all those who serve as well as those who want to explore a possible calling to these ministries to a training session on Saturday, November 3, 9-11 am. The training will be divided into two parts: the first hour (9-9:45) will be dedicated to Ministry of Lectors, the second part (10-10:45), will address the Eucharistic ministry. Coffee and bagels will be provided.

Safe Church Training

Safe Church training will be held at St. John's Parish Center in Speedsville on Nov. 18th from noon til 3 with a potluck lunch. Call St. John's, (607) 657-2636, or Fr. Richard Schaal, (607) 427-4698, to register or for more information. Safe Church training is required of anyone who works with children. In addition, vestry and others in leadership positions are strongly encouraged to be Safe Church trained.

Stewardship Statement

In 2011, the Vestry unanimously supported the adoption of the following stewardship statement:

"We believe that everything comes from God. We are inspired by God's abundant gifts to be givers, nurturers and creators. We know that our time, talent and treasure are essential to the life, mission and community of St. James. We commit ourselves, as the leadership of St. James, to lead by example and thus, We pledge to increase our giving, including working towards the tithe (10%) as our goal. We invite all at St. James to join with us in joyfully making this commitment."

Please join the St. James leadership in committing your time, talent and treasure to do the work of God through St. James.

— Patricia Jue, past warden

St. James Parish Photo – Saturday Edition

Did you miss the September Parish Photo? Well, you're in luck! We will take another parish photo immediately following the Saturday, Nov. 3rd service. We encourage anyone who missed the first photo to be present and accounted for in our Saturday Edition. This shot will be featured on our website as an expression of the wonderful spirit of St. James. We will gather near the choir stalls, immediately following worship ~6 pm. We look forward to seeing you!

Day School News

October was fun with visits to the pumpkin patch and fire house! November at the Day School we will focus on Harvest and Giving Thanks. The Day School will be having a wrapping paper sale for a fundraiser in November, and December 1st we are having a Barnes & Noble Bookfair. Purchase anything and mention St. James' Day School and we will get an amount equal to a percentage of your purchase.

Greetings From Our Nation's Capital!

It has been a while since my last article and I apologize for that. I wanted to update you all that I have recently moved back to the U.S. and am looking for a job in D.C.

While being back in the states, the memories of my time in Mexico come rushing back. It is a very unique sensation to be here and also there at the exact same moment. I understand more and more about my time there as each day goes by. My time in Mexico was truly a gift. The people I met, the work I did, the stories I shared and the memories that were made are all priceless.

That gift was given to me by God as well as by all of you. Sincerely, I say to you that my two years in Mexico would have NEVER happened without all of your generous support, prayers and kind words. It warms my heart to know what a wonderful church family I have at St. James and within the diocese.

Over the next few months I would like to share with you my reflections on my time and work in Mexico City. I am still very connected with the people and my mission projects there. They are people and projects that I will continue to have as a part of my life forever.

At this time I just wanted to say hello, send my best and give a big thank you. I am so appreciative and grateful for each one of you. The work you have enabled me to do will have lasting results. I look forward to sharing more over the next few months.
