Vestry Corner

The August Vestry meeting had a full agenda. We opened with a devotional and a prayer. Our guest was former warden Wendy Weber, who is the chair of the 2010 Stewardship Committee. Wendy asked the Vestry to consider starting the Stewardship Campaign in September. Since reading the book Transforming Congregational Culture by Anthony Robinson, we have discussed basing our budget for next year on the promised 2010 parish pledges. It was agreed that this was a good idea.

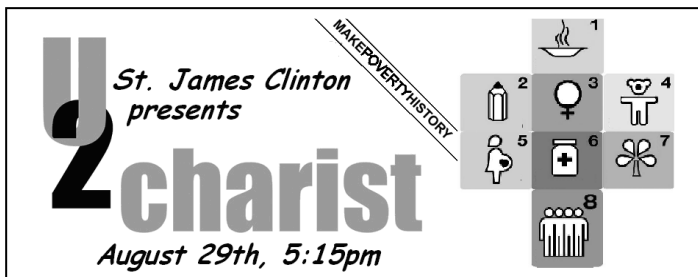

The Vestry voted to rent out the Rectory. The rent will include utilities and outside maintenance. We feel that it is a good idea to have someone living in the rectory rather than leaving it vacant during the Search process.

On Saturday, August 29, we will have an U2charist service at 5:15pm. In exchange for using the U2 music, the U2 rock band asks that we contribute to the Millennium Development Goals (MDG). The Outreach Committee asked that the August 29th and 30th plate offering be donated to support the MDG (see page 9 and 10 for more). The vestry supports this Outreach project.

We look forward to fellowship with St. James parishioners at the upcoming Pot Luck dinners in October, November and December (see page 7). There will be a Parish update from the Search Committee at the October Pot Luck dinner. I hope to see you there on October 3.

Heidi Philley,
Senior Warden

The vestry will meet on Tuesday, September 8, at 7pm
rather than on Wednesday this month.

From our Minister of Music

September is upon us, and that means our choirs are starting up once more!

September 6th is an Ecumenical service on the Green, so the Adult choir will sing their first anthem (and LOTS of other music) on September 13th. Our first rehearsal will be on Thursday the 10th, at 7:30 in the evening.

Youth choir will have their first gathering after the Sunday service on September 13th. We are thinking of expanding this choir with the addition of musical instruments. Our approach will be very flexible: percussion could be added to an anthem, a flute playing a solo melody could happen, a small ensemble moment might occur.

For this to work, though, we need the support of our adults. There are many jobs open, believe me! These include "reminding" kids at coffee hour about the rehearsal, singing with the kids to help them learn parts, keeping track of who is in the choir and making a list with phone numbers and addresses. It would be wonderful if someone could work with the instrumentalists separately at times. We are a talented congregation, and I know there are people who could help us in all these ways.

I am very much looking forward to getting things rolling – it's starting to get a bit lonely up there, all by myself!

Richard Lloyd
Minister of Music

Rehearsal for adult choir begins on Thursday, September 10th, at 7:30pm.
Open to all.

About the Search Process

News from the Search Committee

Dear Friends,

The members of the Search Committee (for a new Rector) have met as a group with Canon Karen Lewis, from the Bishop's office, and are in the planning stages of our search and discernment process.

As shared with us by Canon Lewis, "the process can be separated into stages, each of which requires a commitment of time and resources:

- Preparation and Planning
- Self Study
- Clergy Search
- Discernment
- Discernment Call
- Mutual Ministry. "

We are at the start of the Self Study stage. This stage is focused on helping us understand our strengths and weaknesses as a parish as well as our aspirations for our next rector. Our Self Study Subcommittee is headed by Matt Weber; working with Matt is Colleen Campbell, Chris Fox, Sandra Love, and Barbara McKnight. This subcommittee has specifically been charged with "lead[ing] our congregation through a process of self study seeking the congregation's consensus of their Ministry, Identity, Direction, Systems Functionality, Church Growth Capacity, History with Clergy, and Expectations for Future Clergy. The Self Study Committee will develop, and the Vestry will adopt, a parish profile and leadership criteria for the new clergy. The profile information and proposed compensation needs to be reviewed by the Bishop's office." It will then be posted on the central deployment website of the National (Episcopal) church.

As a first step in our Self Study process, we will be undertaking a Parish-wide Survey, working in September with a survey format provided by Holy Cow Consulting company. Please watch for announcements in the service bulletins, via e-mail, and by regular mail for the various ways by which each Parish member will be able to complete the survey questionnaire.

For updates on the search process, see
<http://www.stjamesclinton.org/rector-search1>

About the Search Committee

Randy Wilson chairs the search committee. Blair Jones and Barbara McKnight are the other primary leaders (vice-chairs).

Other members are Karen Anderson, Mike Baldwin, Libby Beardsell, Colleen Campbell, Pat Evans, Chris Fox, Ken Iles, Sandra Love, Barbara Sweetman, Emily Vicks, Jean Vicks and Matt Weber.

"How long will it [the search] take?"

The length of time to complete any given stage of this process depends upon many variables, including the frequency of meetings, the willingness of members to work independently and collaboratively, issues that need to be addressed (i.e., it may be necessary to work on conflict resolution or financial challenges before proceeding with the search), the length of time required to develop a parish profile, delays due to holidays and vacations, etc. Flexibility is essential. The 'average' time from departure of a rector to the calling of a new rector is 12 to 18 months " (All quoted material is sourced from Parish Transition - Clergy Search Process, Diocese of Central New York.)

Please note that every member of your search committee is sworn to maintain confidentiality regarding the name and/or identity of all candidates.

Every Parish Member should be an active participant in this process. We look forward to your questions and comments and would welcome your help on our various subcommittees.

Should you want to suggest the name of a possible candidate, please contact:

Judy Fried, Diocesan Deployment Officer:
jfried@cny.anglican.org
315-474-6596.

Judy is the first line of formal contact for any and all potential candidates.

Asking your prayers as we undertake our search and discernment process,

Your Search Committee
Randy Wilson, Chairperson
Blair Jones, Vice Chairperson

Worship and Formation

Ecumenical Service

Sunday, September 6 at 9am
(NO Sunday Service at St. James)

On "Labor Day Sunday," there will be an Ecumenical service on the village green. There will be no Sunday service at St. James on that day. Instead, we join with other Clinton churches to worship together. Please come, and bring a lawn chair.

Fall Service Bulletins

For the month of September and October, we will be using service bulletins that include all the words of the service from the Book of Common Prayer. The worship and formation leadership group feels this format will help those visiting our church with our liturgical services. Please help us by placing the bulletins in the blue recycle bins when you are finished with them.

Spirituality Groups

The Men's Group meets on Friday mornings from 7:30-9am in the St. James library. All men are invited to join in the (often lively) discussion.

The Women's Spiritual Group meets the first Monday of each month. However, in September, they meet on September 14th (the second Monday).

The Lectionary Group meets on Wednesdays from Noon-1pm in the St. James library to reflect on the upcoming readings for worship. No preparation is needed. For information on either the Women's or Lectionary Group, ask Heidi Philley, Senior Warden and leader of both groups.

Worship and Formation Leadership Group

This group plans formation (Christian education) events, discusses upcoming special services, reflects on recent special services and periodically discusses any feedback related to the regularly scheduled services. If you would like to become part of this leadership group, or have suggestions, please contact Alistair Campbell (chair). The next meeting is Tuesday, October 29 at 7pm in the St. James library to plan Advent and Christmas events.

Met Our Supply Priests and Other Worship Leaders

We are very fortunate to have a several supply priest. These include Don Berry, John LaVole, Karen Lewis, Joelle Szachara and Peter Williams. Supply priest are clergy persons who lead the worship service and celebrate (bless and consecrate) the Eucharist when the regular priest (canonical priest) is not in residence.

Many of you met Peter Williams during the summer. He continues to worship with us two Sundays of each month. An article about him appeared in the June 2009 newsletter.¹ Fr. Don Berry is a retired Colgate University Philosophy and Religion professor; he has served as supply priest for St. James for many years. The Rev. Karen Lewis comes from the Episcopal Diocese of Central New York in Syracuse (our Diocese). She also serves as our advisor through the self-study and search process. Fr. John LaVole has served as supply priest at many area churches, and has a good understanding of churches in transition. The Rev. Joelle Szachara is the priest at St. Stephen's Church in New Hartford. She leads their Sunday worship service and joins us for some Saturday services.

Lay worship leaders for our Morning and Evening Prayer services include Alistair Campbell, Matt and Wendy Weber and Sandra Love.

Diocesan Licensing for Lay Worship Leaders Saturday, September 26, 9am to 4pm, St. Luke's, Camillus

This day includes an "Instructed Eucharist" and many workshops. The "Day of Liturgy, Learning and Licensing" is strongly suggested for those interested or in "the process of a ministry that requires a licensing according to the National & Diocesan Canons." Alistair Campbell is our licensed worship leader. Others planning to attend are Sandra Love, Karen Anderson and the Webers. For more information, see the flyer at <http://cny.anglican.org/documents/347.pdf> or contact Alistair Campbell..

Children and Youth Ministry

Church School kick-off September 13

The children's formation program kicks off on September 13 with a five week workshop cycle on Jesus' disciples called "Twelve Who Changed the World." Children will learn about Jesus and the disciples as they cycle through kitchen, art, film, drama, and story workshops.

Here are some of the concepts we will explore:

- Jesus had many followers including 12 who helped him do God's work.
- The word "disciple" means "student" or "learner."
- The 12 disciples were ordinary people who helped to do extraordinary things.
- Jesus calls us to help do God's work too!

What does it mean to follow Jesus? What clues do we have from the first people who did it? How would a disciple act in real life situations that we experience at school, in our neighborhood, at home, and at church?

Grouping the children

Children need engaging, interactive learning experiences, but "engaging" and "interactive" can mean very different things for boys and girls, and for older and younger children. After a conversation with teachers and parents, we are trying something new for grouping the children in Church School. Girls age 4 through 2nd grade will be in one class, and girls in 3rd grade-8th grade in another class. All the boys will be in one class, with the older boys serving as mentors for the younger boys.

How can you help?

Volunteers are needed. We need 3-5 adults to be workshop teachers, doing the same workshop (drama, kitchen project, etc.) for several weeks in a row. We also need at least 3 "shepherds" who will travel with one group through all of the cycle workshops. Please let Jenn DeWeerth know if you are willing to help from Sept 13-Oct. 11.

Don't worry if you can't help this time. There will be more workshop cycles coming up as the year goes on. Later in October we'll be starting a unit on the Hebrew Bible figure of Samuel.

Spiritual Care for Children and Adults Book Reviews

It can be a challenge to find thoughtful and inspiring books that relate to our faith lives. In this new monthly column I'd like to recommend some books to you, and hope you'll also let me know your suggestions as well.

FOR ADULTS: Krista Tippett, host of the public radio show "Speaking of Faith," says, "Raising children is a great spiritual challenge that many of us live with day-to-day, but we so rarely call it that." Parenting raises our own spiritual questions anew. For children, faith begins not in abstractions "but in concrete everyday experiences."

Few books explore these themes as eloquently as In the Midst of Chaos: Caring for Children as Spiritual Practice (Jossey-Bass, 2007) by Bonnie Miller-McLemore, a Protestant theologian at Vanderbilt University. She states that most adults, because they have children, must ultimately come to grips with a spirituality that is not expressed through silence, solitude, and study but through interruptions, messes, confusion, and also, frequently, joy. McLemore talks about "sanctifying the ordinary." The book is a rich in practical theology, but is also filled with personal and practical examples of the kind of spiritual life that Christianity insists upon—a fleshy, embodied—incarnate—life that is shared and passed on not just at the altar tables in church but also the chaotic dinner table at home.

FOR CHILDREN: God Created (Augsburg Fortress, 2003) by Mark Francisco Bozzuti-Jones is illustrated by Jui Ishida. Motion-filled, lush paintings match the simple rhythmic words, bringing alive the ancient Genesis creation story. Bozzuti-Jones juxtaposes the water and the animals with specific human emotions and relationships to describe the vast diversity of what God has created. One phrase, "God created all these and much more, and much more..." echoes to the end, allowing children to join in affirming that "God created you!"

I've placed my copies of these books in the church library, and encourage you to borrow and enjoy them. Happy reading! Jenn DeWeerth

PICTURE POLICY

On occasion, pictures are taken of services, fellowship gatherings and other St. James events. These pictures may appear in the monthly newsletter or the church website at www.stjamesclinton.org. Children are generally not identified by name. However, if you would prefer that your picture (or those of family members) not be taken or not published in either the newsletter or website, please let Patricia Jue or the Church office know.

On-line versions of the newsletter are posted on the church website. Personal e-mail addresses or telephone numbers are replaced with those of the church office. Children's names appear as first name and last initial.

Parish Life

Fall Potluck Dinners

"First Saturday" Potluck Dinner Saturday, October 3rd at 6:15pm

Our first potluck dinner is Saturday, October 3rd at 6:15pm, following the Saturday evening service. Sign-up sheets will be posted in the Church and in the Parish Hall. All are invited to come to this time of food and fellowship so that those who attend Saturday and Sunday services can enjoy this time together.

We will pass a basket for free-will donations to help defray the cost of beverages and tableware supplies. We also need "hosts" (a family or a couple of people) to coordinate these events. As hosts, you would arrange for setting the tables and gather others to assist with making beverages and clean-up. Please contact the church office, Randy Wilson, Kathy White or Holly Horner if you are interested in helping out.

Potluck Dinners Continue

"First Saturday" Potluck dinners continue through December (November 7th and for December 5th), again following the Saturday evening services.

Parish Life Leadership Group

This group plans fellowship events and looks for ways to bring community and stewardship into our faith lives. If you would like to become part of this group, or have suggestions for the Fall, please contact co-chairs, Randy Wilson or Wendy Weber.

The next meeting will be Sunday, September 27, following the morning service.

Treasurer's Corner

Everyone who made a pledge should have received a quarterly pledge statement. Please call the office or put a note in Jan Wilson's mailbox – located in the church hallway across from the water fountain – if you have any questions or concerns regarding your statement. Not only are the statements a record for the parishioner, but they also help us to discover any clerical errors that need to be adjusted. A few errors on some statements from late quarter were noted and corrected. Thank you to those parishioners for their assistance and patience.

Thanks to all for their donations over the summer months. As of the writing of this article, we are staying right on par with our anticipated funds. The vestry has authorized that the 2008-2009 budget be revised to reflect the following:

- An increase in supply clergy expenses.
- An increase in Lewis House utilities and maintenance expenses.
- A new line for Search Committee expenses.
- A decrease in the Rector Salary expenses.

The revised 2009 budget will be available in the office after it is finalized and approved by the vestry and wardens.

We are trying a new process for the 2010 budget as recommended by the stewardship committee, and approved by the vestry and wardens. Budget requests forms went out to committee chairpersons in July, and were due back in mid-August. The plan is to have a preliminary projected budget ready for the September vestry meeting for their input and approval. Then the 2010 projections will be ready for the congregation to see and consider during the stewardship campaign in October. The vestry will then finalize the budget in December and January to be ready for the Annual meeting in January. We hope to have copies of the projected budget available in the office and in the back of the church as soon as the vestry has approved it. It will provide the preliminary target figures for income need for anticipated expenses in 2010. The diocese has recommended that we budget as if we have a full-time rector. More information will be shared as it is available.

Jan Wilson
Treasurer

About the Lewis House

On Wednesday July 22, a neighborhood meeting was held in the Parish Hall of St. James Church at 7:00pm. The purpose of the meeting was to present different use options for the Lewis house, the white house owned by St. James, which is next to our parking lot. There were approximately 40 attendees. There were about 10 residents of Williams St.

The three options for the Lewis house property were discussed:

1. Rehabilitate the house for St. James use.
2. Re-purpose the property for green space and parking.
3. Sell the property.

There was much discussion by everybody in attendance but no new options given for use of the property. Some people want St. James to use our investments to fix the property for various uses but our investment policy does not allow us to withdraw money for this purpose.

I kept track of the comments made at the meeting:

- Four people wanted to rehabilitate the house.
- Two people wanted to sell the house.
- Four people wanted to re-purpose the property.
- Ten people didn't want to tear the house down (no preference given for its use).

Not everybody made a statement.

Skip Beardsell, a resident of Williams Street and member of St. James, presented a petition signed by virtually all the residents of Williams Street. The petition states that the signers do not support the demolition of the Lewis house.

The vestry had a special meeting the following Wednesday to discuss the neighborhood meeting. The consensus was that the Lewis house has become a divisive issue within our church and we should resolve this issue as soon as possible. We hope to hear final presentations from people representing the rehabilitate and re-purpose options in September and to make a decision after that.

Please speak to any vestry member – listed on page 2 – if you have any concerns. Also keep us in your prayers as we seek to decide this issue.

Jim White,
Junior warden

Outreach

Outreach News

The Outreach group has recently approved two transactions. The first is to continue to support a scholarship fund for the St. James Day School. The fund is used to help families to pay the tuition costs of attending St. James Day School. This has been an ongoing effort by our Outreach to help families afford quality pre-school programming here in Clinton.

The second motion was to use the plate gathering for the weekend of the U2Charist (Saturday, August 29 and Sunday August 30) to help Moses Agapito's efforts to build a school and a health clinic in his home village in Sudan. Some of you may recall reading about Moses' efforts in some articles in the Utica Observer-Dispatch in the spring. Moses is a "Lost Boy" of Sudan because he was orphaned and forced to flee his home village in southern Sudan due to the civil war there in the 1980s and 90s. After many grueling months of walking and being nearly killed or starving to death several times, the boys made their way to a refugee camp in Kenya. From there, Moses was brought to the US. Moses is now a US citizen and continuing his education here in Central New York. We are pleased to be able to help him with this donation to his fundraising. Look for more news about Moses and how we at St. James can help in the future.

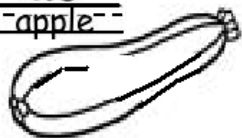

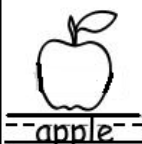

The Outreach Committee has some opportunities for you to help out our local community. Please see the Sunday bulletins and the hand outs in the back of the church and in the Parish Hall for specifics.

Karen Anderson,
Chair of the Outreach leadership group

The next Outreach meeting will be Sunday, September 20, following the morning service.

"Apples to Zucchini – Family Friendly Recipes"

A cookbook fundraiser for the St. James' Day School - $14

Featuring artwork and quotes from the Day School children.

Look for it at coffee hour.

Freedom Project

Building a school

The plate offering collected during the Saturday U2charist service on August 29 and the following Sunday service – August 30 – will be donated towards the Freedom Project to build a school and health clinic in Jebel Lado. It is the hometown of Moses Agapito.

Moses was forced to flee his native village in 1989. He made his way first to Kenya, then to the United States through the Refugee Resettlement Program sponsored by the Mohawk Valley Resource Center for Refugees. Moses, a recent graduate of Mohawk Valley Community College in Human Services, plans to continue his education.

On a recent visit back home, Moses met his fellow villagers who invited him to consider building a school. Moses has agreed to be the guiding force behind his school project. It is Moses' hope that the community of Upstate New York will join in his efforts to bring growth and encouragement to his former village.

United Thank Offering Coming Up

We will be holding a United Thank Offering collection — "UTO" — this fall here at St. James. The mission of the UTO is to expand the circle of thankful people. To achieve this, UTO encourages daily prayers, offerings, and awareness of the abundance of God's blessings. We will be sharing more information in our next newsletter and in our weekly announcements.

Too Many Tomatoes and Zucchini? Not enough ideas?

We are continuing to sell the cookbooks for the 2009 Day School fundraiser and have done pretty well. There are several recipes for summer vegetables. Purchase a copy of the book, get some ideas and help out a good cause. The money will be used towards a playhouse/slide to improve and update the playground.

Community News

Collecting for the "Nearly New" Sale

Friends of the Lutheran Home: Sept. 25 & 26th

The Friends of the Lutheran Home hold an annual "Nearly New Sale" in the fall. The proceeds from this fundraising provide residents with extras such as birthday cards, special meal events and dining room table decorations. To make this sale a success, they need:

- Clothes in excellent condition
- Toys
- Household items
- Jewelry
- Small appliances

BUT NO books, suitcases, exercise or sports equipment, curtains, drapes or metal office furniture. Items may be left at the Reception Desk in the Arnsten Administration Building September 14th to 18th from 7am and 3pm. They ask that you do not drop off donations before these dates.

Community Garden

St. James has been active in the community garden for Country Pantry. The garden is located behind the Resurrection Church on Kirkland Avenue in Clinton. Our refrigerator has been used to store zucchini and other vegetables until they can be delivered to Country Pantry clients. Currently, there are lots of cucumbers. Parish members have baked goodies using the zucchini for Country Pantry clients. They have also helped prepare and serve a "simple dinner" where clients enjoyed a meal together, and received recipes for the abundant harvest.

Stop by any time to see the garden and, if you are able, come by on Wednesdays to help in the garden.

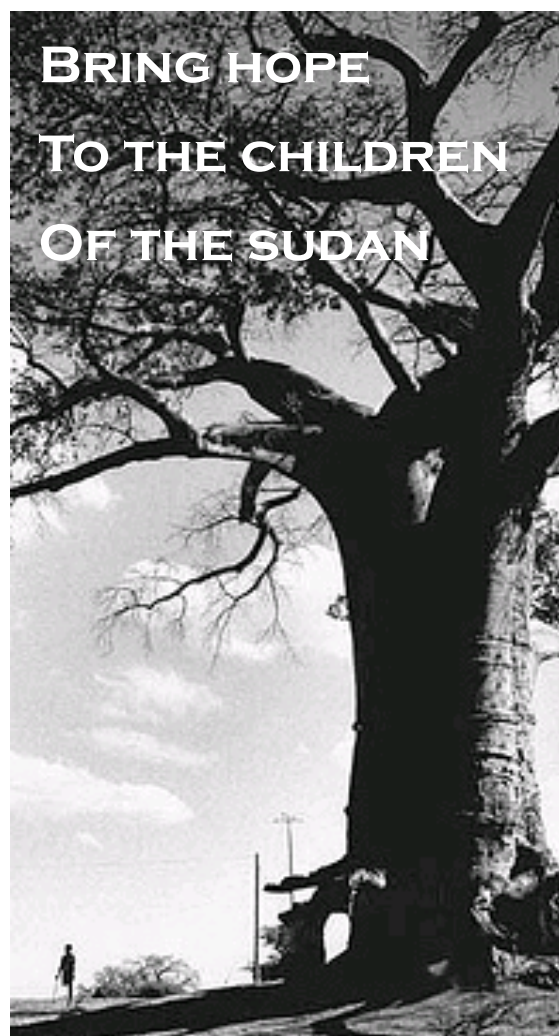

For I was hungry and you gave me something to eat, I was thirsty and you gave me something to drink, I was a stranger and you invited me in. Matthew 25:35 to educate orphaned children to create future leaders in Sudanese society and utilize discipline and respect for human rights to enhance good government.

BUILD A SCHOOL

IN JEBEL LADO, SUDAN

CONTRIBUTE TO THE FREEDOM PROJECT

The greatest need is a school building in the village of Jebel Lado, located along the Nile River, 40 miles north of Juba Town, the capital of Southern Sudan. Presently, the children receive their education underneath a tree. The weather can adversely affect their ability to learn, and keep the students from an education.

The plate collection during Aug 29 and 30 will be donated to this cause. You can also donate through St. James outreach; mark checks "OUTREACH; PROJECT FREEDOM" or directly:
