

taliba is a comrade, mother, daughter, sister, foot soldier and a dreamer for a new South. Raised by a single father and hailing from the 713, she spent the early days of the 80s and 90s in Houston, under the social effects of the War on Drugs and hip-hop politics. Mom of an amazing 9 daughter, she navigates raising her babylove by following her lead while intentionally grounding in the legacy of Black u.s. Southern and New Afrikan culture. Beginning as a youth, beloved has organized for almost 20 years connecting grassroots movements around different struggles including youth, human rights, climate & environmental, reproductive justices and racial and social economic justice.

Currently, taliba serves as the National Coordinator of Malcolm X Grassroots Movements and a member of the parent organization, New Afrikan Peoples Organization, organizing for human rights and demanding self-determination for Afrikan descendants in the United States. She has had the opportunity to connect with movements internationally including Brasil, Cuba, Costa Rica, and Senegal. She is also member of the Delta Sigma Theta sorority incorporated.